What's unique about St. John's University Campus?

"The breathtaking view of Manhattan and its skyscrapers"

Our New York City program is hosted at St. John's University, a Catholic university founded in 1870.

Manhattan is accessible by all public transportation from the University: allowing students easy access to the vast cultural, educational, and commercial resources of this magnificent city.

St. John's Campus encompasses over 100 acres in Queens in a safe, residential neighborhood and features ultramodern student residence halls. St. John's offers many opportunities that other universities in New York City cannot, including comfortable and air-conditioned residence halls on a spacious and beautiful campus.
